

Security When You Need It Most

Anthem Life would like to extend our deepest sympathy to you and your family for your recent loss. We realize that words alone will not comfort you during this difficult time. That is why we will do our utmost to assure that your dealings with us are professional, timely and handled with care and understanding.

We are committed to serving the needs of our members and their beneficiaries. That's why policy proceeds of $10,000 or more are paid through our Access Advantage program — at no cost to you. Your account will pay a competitive interest rate and provide free check-writing privileges.

With your proceeds completely safe, fully guaranteed and earning competitive interest rates, you will have the time you need to decide what is best for your long-term security. You may withdraw the entire amount with one check or, since there are no monthly fees, you may opt to keep the account open for days, months or even years.

We will forward your checkbook and other information as soon as your claim is approved. You will also begin receiving monthly statements showing your account activity. Please take a moment to read the step-by-step instructions on the right before filling out the attached Claimant's Statement. Then give the form to your benefit representative.

Please know that we are here to provide you with the flexibility and security you need during this difficult time.

Respectfully yours,

Anthem Life Insurance Company

Completing your claim form

Questions 1-8: This information about the deceased is necessary for identification purposes.

Questions 9-10: Please sign and date this section as you would sign a check. This signature may be used in the future to verify your signature or account instructions. You will also be certifying that your social security number (or other taxpayer identification number) and withholding status are correct.

Questions 11-16: This information helps us quickly make payment to you.

- Social security number: Though life insurance benefits are generally not subject to income tax, the interest you earn is taxable. That's why we need your social security or other taxpayer identification number. If you leave it blank, the Federal government requires us to withhold a portion of the interest. If you are applying for a social security number, simply write "applied for" in the appropriate space.
- Claims by an estate or assignee: If the claim is being filed by an executor or administrator, he or she must sign the claimant's statement. Be sure to use the estate's taxpayer identification number. If you have assigned all or a portion of the benefit to a funeral home, please include a copy of the assignment. If the proceeds have been assigned to a bank or other financial institution as collateral, an authorized representative of that institution must sign.
- If the beneficiary is a minor: If there is a legal guardian or conservator for the property or estate of the minor, he or she should list the minor's social security number and sign the statement. Please submit a certified copy of the papers appointing guardianship. If no appointment has been made, we will contact you for further information.
- Multiple beneficiaries: If there is more than one beneficiary, please photocopy the statement or contact us for additional copies.

Interest is compounded daily at a rate guaranteed by Anthem Life to match or exceed a leading national index of bank money market accounts. Access Advantage checks are subject to the current rules and regulations of State Street Bank and Trust Company in Boston, MA.
